Forgive your neighbor’s injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven.

From the Pastor’s Desk

$70 \times 7 = \text{always}!!$  Even when forgiveness is sought by the offender, it is not always easy for us to forgive. It is especially hard to forgive someone who has hurt us often or even an offender who does not even ask for our forgiveness. Perhaps it’s because we think that forgiveness means that we have to agree with or at least excuse the offender’s behavior. This is not the case.

Today we hear the command from Jesus to forgive always. Peter asks about forgiving his “brother.” By this, Peter is referring to his fellow Israelites. Jesus in responding to Peter has a broader vision in mind. Indeed, He speaks to Peter not about brothers but about servants. For we are all servants of God and God, who is the Master, demands we treat each other with the same forgiveness He shows each of us.

The command we receive from Jesus to always forgive our offender does not mean that we excuse or simply forget about their hurtful and sometimes devastating behavior. What Jesus is telling us to do is to leave the final judgment to God. Our forgiveness is limited by our limited nature but even our limited forgiveness is considered by God to be quite powerful. It has the power to free us from our hate and our hurt. It has the power to open our hearts and to imitate the most important person in our life, God.

If we are to be like our heavenly Father, as Jesus reminds us, then we too must forgive each other as God forgives. Thus, we enable one another to move beyond our faults, and the hurt they cause, so we can grow closer to God’s way of love. Forgiveness is given freely by God but it can be squandered by us when we don’t take the opportunity to move beyond our selfish ways that offend. Not only is forgiveness a free gift, it is at the same time a challenge to the offender to grow out of his or her selfishness and into God’s selfless love. We need to remember that our forgiveness also carries with it an unspoken challenge to the one we forgive to move beyond his or her hurtful and hateful acts. If we can keep this two-edged notion of forgiveness in mind we might find it agreeable, and perhaps even easier, to forgive those who offend us seventy times seven times as Jesus commands.

As we reflect on the events of the past few months, it is easy (especially via Facebook and other social media sites) to become armchair judges and juries. We begin to fall into “sides” and this leads to deep divisions. In taking a side, we fall into the trap of painting the other side as less than we are, as bad, or demonic. We begin to justify our leanings by claiming the unjust position of the other side. The essential values of mercy and forgiveness are cast aside as nice ideas but useless in a fight. Sadly we develop a spiritual amnesia forgetting that these values are central to Jesus’ mission and are always counter to our prevailing culture of division.

This Gospel always challenges its listeners. Not to point a finger at us in an accusatory fashion but to shake us up a bit to try to be less the judge and jury and to leave that to God. It doesn't mean you and I cannot take a stand on issues. But it does mean that we have to be mature enough to stand for issues that promote God’s call to compassion, respect and peaceableness.

St. Michael’s Feast Day.  We will celebrate our feast day on the last Sunday of September, as usual. However, we are not able to have some of the customary feast day activities, like our coffee and rolls and our Ministry Faire. BUT we can still pray; and praying is certainly something we need to do in these difficult times. Part of our Feast Day festivities has always been an afternoon of Eucharistic Adoration. This will still happen. From after 11:30 AM Mass till 4:30 PM, the Blessed Sacrament will be on the altar in the main church for adoration and prayer. Adoration will conclude with Evening Prayer and Benediction. Make some time for the Lord as we pray for safety and health and give thanks for our blessings too.
Spirituality and Worship Commission

Spiritual Communion Prayer
As you temporarily participate at Mass by remote viewing, you and your families are encouraged to make a daily Spiritual Communion by praying:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

There will no Eucharistic Adoration during the month of September. We will keep you updated as to when Eucharistic Adoration will return on Wednesdays.

The Word

(Readings for September 20, 2020, The Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

I. Isaiah 55:6-9

Isaiah prophesied, “Seek the Lord while He may be found; call Him while He is near...My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways My ways, says the Lord.”

II. Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

Paul wrote, “Life is Christ and death is gain...I long to depart this life and be with Christ, for that is far better. Yet that I remain in the flesh is more necessary for your benefit. Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.”

III. Matthew 20:1-16a

Jesus told the parable about the vineyard owner who hired workers at different times of the day and paid them all the same amount at the end of the day. The owner concluded, “Am I not free to do as I wish with my own money?” Jesus added, “The last will be first, and the first will be last.”
