Persistence. There are very few people who actually make it their life’s endeavor to do what is wrong. Most of us want to do what is right. What gets in the way is the misleading belief that my point of view is the only point of view. Now I am not justifying the moral quagmire of situation ethics but rather the temptation to be unwilling to see another’s perspective. The most dangerous people can be those who are convinced of their own moral rectitude and the rightness of their position. There is a thin line between persistence and rigid determinism. That difference is mediated by love.

St. Paul reminds us that “Love does no evil to the neighbor.” Gandhi, Martin Luther King and Mother Theresa exhibited persistence. Though determined to confront what they considered injustice, it was their persistence that allowed them to not lose sight of their neighbor. Imperial Britain was persistent in its belief that they were called to civilize the native population of India; however, their persistence was expressed in a determination that was intolerant of the ones they came to civilize.

The same holds true for segregationists in the North and the South. They were and even still are persistent in their beliefs but their determination is based in fear and so lacks charity. The persistence of a few Muslim extremists to safeguard their people from the powerful and debilitating effects of globalization has led to a determinism which finds no value in those who disagree with them. But, indeed, the values that underpin capitalism are powerful too. The market forces of our economic system are persistent. Though this system of economics can help many, it too, when pressed with relentless determination, can destroy as many as it assists.

To be persistent without caring for the neighbor (and for us that means everyone, as Jesus pointed out) is to allow our determinism to rule without limits. Such determination is not a value. Indeed, persistence turns to determination when the neighbor is considered unworthy of acceptance. When you or I or anyone else begins to consider someone or some people less than worthy of our concern, our empathy or our respect, then the line is crossed. Our determined belief, whatever it might be, loses sight of our neighbor.

Love is the mediator of dreams and the judge of ambitions. Dreams are ambitious but ambitions, noble as they might first appear, poison even the best of dreams. To dream with Jesus is to be persistent in the values of mercy and forgiveness. Persistence is what we all need to temper the alluring call of vengeance and judgment.

Last week was the kick-off Sunday for the Catholic Services Appeal (CSA). 135 households have responded thus far. Many others are needed. Our parish is comprised of over 2000 households. Our goal for this year is $103,129. With your generosity and care for those ministries the CSA supports we will reach our goal and beyond. Thank you to those who have already pledged. If you were not in church last weekend or are still unable to attend Mass you will receive a CSA brochure and pledge card in the mail.

St. Michael’s Feast Day. We will celebrate our feast day on the last Sunday of September, as usual. However, we are not able to have some of the customary feast day activities, like our coffee and rolls, and our Ministry Faire. BUT we can still pray; and praying is certainly something we need to do in these difficult times. Part of our Feast Day festivities has always been an afternoon of Eucharistic Adoration. This will still happen. From after 11:30 AM Mass till 4:30 PM the Blessed Sacrament will be on the altar in the main church for adoration and prayer. Adoration will conclude with Evening Prayer and Benediction. Make some time for the Lord as we pray for safety and health and give thanks for our blessings too.

The Story of the Brown Scapular

Request #3: Consecrate yourself to the Immaculate Heart of Mary and wear the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel as a sign of your consecration.

On July 16, 1251 the Blessed Virgin originally gave the brown scapular to St. Simon Stock. He was praying to Our Lady when he had his famous vision of her bringing the brown scapular to him with the following words, which are preserved in a 14th century narrative: “This will be a privilege for you and for all Carmelites, that he who dies in this will not suffer eternal fire.” Eventually this privilege was extended to the laity, and this promise implies that the Blessed Virgin will intercede to ensure that the duly enrolled wearer of the scapular obtains the grace of final perseverance, that is of dying in a state of grace, and so ultimately will go to heaven.

A Fatima Devotion
There is also a Fatima connection to the brown scapular regarding the final apparition on Oct. 13, 1917. While the great crowd of 70,000 people was seeing the miracle of the sun, Jacinta, Francisco and Lucia saw various apparitions the Holy Family, and also a final apparition of the Blessed Virgin as Our Lady of Mount Carmel and holding a brown scapular. Later on Sister Lucia said: “The Rosary and the Scapular are inseparable,” and “All Catholics should wear the Scapular as part of the Fatima message.”

Spiritual Communion Prayer

As you temporarily participate at Mass by remote viewing, you and your families are encouraged to make a daily Spiritual Communion by praying:
My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

Watch for Change in Door Entrances
Starting September 12th/13th
Starting the weekend of September 12th/13th, the entrance to the church for weekend Masses will be the east and west doors. The hall doors will be closed due to school activity. There will still be a check-in before entering the Gathering Space. Masks are required and social distancing is to be followed.

Becoming Catholic

This is the process for those who are interested in taking a journey to learn more about the Catholic Faith. Adults and those 8 years of age or older, baptized in another faith tradition, non-baptized, or only baptized in the Catholic faith and wish to complete their Sacraments of Initiation are invited to Come and See what the traditions and faith of the Church truly have to offer through the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist. For more information about this process, please call Gary at 219-678-1332.
Dear St. Michael the Archangel Parish Community ~
The doors of St. Michael Catholic School open to another faith-filled school year on Tuesday, September 8th! We have been waiting over five months to have our students back in their school home and learning by the blessings of God and this amazing school and parish community. This year may bring some new challenges due to COVID-19 but we are ready to meet those challenges and continue an A rated Catholic Education. As always we will strive and nurture our students for academic success; success in being an active learner and thriving from knowledge and understanding, understanding and commitment in the importance of their education rooted in the foundation of Catholic Faith. Our faith is our guide in service, character and kindness. We are ‘Warriors of Faith’!

I start my sixth year as the proud principal of St. Mike’s and have watched with pride as we surpassed state educational standards; led with examples of service and betterment for others and driven with spirit and purpose to offer a quality Catholic Education that not only serves our students well but prepares them for their future. A future imbedded with the desire to make a difference for good. St. Michael School truly makes a difference of good that leaves that lasting impression to be more and use the gifts God has so abundantly bestowed on us.

I can’t thank St. Michael the Archangel Parish enough for the financial sacrifice and support of the school, your constant prayers and for cheering us on as we educate and nurture our youth. The reason for this school is Christ and YOU have made that possible. Please contact me at ckennedy@stmichaelparish.life or (219) 322-4531 if interested in hearing the “Good News” of St. Michael School.

God bless and keep the faith!

Please join me in wishing our faculty and staff a wonderful school year.

The Word
(Readings for September 13, 2020, The Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

I. Sirach 27:30-28:7
Forgive the injustice of your neighbor, for then your own sins will be pardoned. Remember death, stop sinning, recall the commandments, love your neighbor, think of God’s covenant and overlook the fault of others.

II. Romans 14:7-9
We are not our own masters, but we are responsible to the Lord as servants. In life and in death we belong to the Lord. Christ died and rose to life in order to become “Lord of both the dead and the living.”

III. Matthew 18:21-35
In a parable on forgiveness, Jesus compared the reign of God to a king settling accounts with his officials: Moved by compassion, the king forgave some or all of each debt. An official then extorted the full amount he was owed, and the king punished him.
